RUN OVER AND KILLED. - A correspondent of the Richmond Whig of this morning says On Tuesday evening Mr. George Hewitt, a young farmer residing in Fauquier county, near Morrisville, was at Bealton station, on the O. & A. railroad. Whilst there he indulged in ardent spirits. Near nightfall he shouldered his gun, called his dog, and left the depot afoot saying he had business at Rappahannock station. Next morning (yesterday) his body was found shockingly mangled on the track about one mile south of Bealton, He had evidently been run over by the freight or passenger train, or both, and was literally torn to shreds .-When your informant left the remains were being picked up and placed in a box to be carried to Bealton station. The unfortunate man discharged.

SUDDEN DEATH .- The death of Mrs. Mary E Padgett was noticed under the obituary head in vesterday's Gazette. About two weeks ago, while standing on a ladder taking down curtains, she slipped and fell across the sharp back of a chair, immediately beneath her, but though the pain of the injury she sustained at the time was intense, she bore it without complaining. Some days before her death, however, she felt so badly that she had to lie down, but nothing serious was apprehended until yesterday morning, when it was discovered that she was speechless, and a physician was sent for, but she was then beyond human assistance.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY. -Mr. James Neale, upon entering the house of his father, Mr. C. L. Neale, on Water street, between Wolfe and Wilkes, late last night, thought he heard some one moving about. He went up stairs and procured a light, and upon coming down again and looking into the parlor found a strange man behind the stove, with one of his boots off and pretending to be very drunk. He soon, however, came to his senses, and refused to give his name or tell how he came where he had been found. He was taken to the station house and this morning was sent to jail upon the charge of housebreaking.

RESCUED. - The family of City Collector Jno. T. Hill, were awakened late last night by a loud but carious noise, and some of them during a search for the cause of it found a large strange dog suspended by a collar from one of the pannels of the gate, and choaking to death. He was rescued at once, and left the premises at a rapid rate. It is supposed that he was accidentally caught while climbing over the gate.

OYSTERS .- The oyster business has increased so much in this city during the last few years, that Alexandria is now one of the best markets for the boatmen engaged in the trade. During the past week or two the demand has been so great that it had to be supplied not only by vessels from the Chesapeake but by the Baltimore steamboats. A cargo arrived up this morning and was soon disposed of at remunerative rates.

THE PIEDMONT RAILROAD.—The Piedmont Railroad to which the District of Columbia, by a large majority of its voters, yesterday, agreed to lend its credit to the amount of $600,000, is a road for the construction of which the last Virginia Legislature granted a charter. It is to run from a point on the Potomac river at or near the Chain Bridge, or at or near the Aqueduet Bridge, or upon some railroad leading to one of them, to Aldie; thence to Rectortown thence to the Valley of Virginia.

NEW BAPTISING GROUND. - For a long time past all the baptismal immersions in this city, except those conducted in the Baptist church, have been perormed in the cove between the lower ship yard and Jones' Point, off what is known as the Baptising Ground, Ice House Hill, and Battery Rodgers, but on Sunday last a diversion was made and several colored persons were baptised in the canal.

RUN AWAY.-Two horses attached to a wagon, standing at Harlow's stora, became frightened, this morning, and started off up Cameron street at a furious gait. At Christ Church corner the wagon struck the lamp post and was smashed, but the horses still went on dragging it after them, and were not stopped until they had almost reached the city's limits. The team belonged to Mr. B. F. Saffer, of CATTLE TRADE .-- The cattle trade on the O., A. & M. R. R., this season greatly excees that of any previous year, and from it the road, irrespective of its other business, receives a large income. Mr. J. A. Evans, the agent of the road, left here day before yesterday for Texas to perfect arrangements for the transportation of the large herds that will soon pass through here.

LIBRARY FESTIVAL.-The ladies' festival for the benefit of the Alexandria Library commenced at Sarepta Hall last night. It is exceedingly attractive, and there is no place at which a more agreeable evening can be spent. It is, above all others, the place for those who are fond of things that are good to eat and drink.

NIGHT REPORT. - Night cloudy, with a slight fall of snow between nine and ten o'clock-until about eleven o'clock when it cleared away cold and with the wind from the north west. Ice was formed in the gutters, and a heavy frost was visible this morning. Three lodgers and six prisoners were at the station house.

A Card-Encourage Home Trade.

We would most respectfully call the attention of gentlemen, and particularly those who are in the habit of wearing the best and most stylish apparel, both in over and undergarments, and who have hitherto gone to merchant tailors and to Washington for their supply, to our most complete, fine and stylish stock of goods. We have spared no means for the accomplishment of a first-class Clothing Establishment in this city. We have procured the very best Clothing to be found in the city of New York, both in material and workmanship, and we have the very latest styles, such as we are confident cannot be found ready made even in Washington. We are willing to sell them reasonably, much lower than the like can be procured at a mer-chant tailor's or in Washington. For the veri-fication of this assertion, call and see us. You cannot judge without you see. No trouble to show goods. We delight in the exhibition of our fine stock. Encourge home trade, and par-ticularly first-class establishments, if you have the prosperity of our city at heart.

Respectfully,

I. Schwartz & Co.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Arrest Decay .- When a plant or a tree begins to decay it must needs die. It cannot be revitalized. But it is not so with human beings. A human ruin can be repaired, strengthened, restored, though a brown less or a withcred blade of grass can never be made green again. In the autumn of life, or even in its winter, when nature seems to be giving way under the pressure of years, it is still possible to retard the progress of decay, and to lend to age more than progress of decay, and to lend to age more than its wonted vigor. As a means of promoting this object, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is unquestionably the most potent of all restoratives. It will not make the old young, but it will prevent, lessen or sooth the infirmities which are the usual accompanional soft the decimal of life. For deaccompaniments of the decline of life. For debility and a lack of nervous power, from whatever cause arising, it is the medicine that of all others before the world, best deserves the name of a specific. In purity, in invigorating proper-ties, in its adaptation to weak stomachs and fee-ble organizations, it has no competitor among the tom's of the pharmacopein, nor among pro-prietory remedies. Besides its strengthening principle, it possesses alterative and regulating properties of the highest order, and as an anti-bilious medicine is far preferable to any of the preparations containing mercury. Time has shown that for physical decay, nervous debility, dyspepsia, bilious disorders, and intermittent fever, Hostetter's Bitters is a remedy without a rival. This is the season of the fall of the leaf; let it remind the old, the feebie, the sickly, to invigorate and regulate their systems with this great vegetable tonic and alterative. no 20-colv
